Approval of last meeting minutes (Action Item)

Darrel motioned, Caitlyn 2nd. Minutes accepted.

Topics to Discuss:

- ❖ Montana Institute Proposal
- ❖ QPR TOT Request
- ❖ Cottonwood PD and DATE Program request
- ❖ Vinyl Cling Distribution
- ❖ Sicker Shock Participation
- ❖ Webinar Series Update
- ❖ Tall Cop Webinar Update

Discussion was held on the Montana Institute proposal on the Positive Social Norm Science class. Zlata motioned to move forward with he proposal, Darrell 2nd. Unanimous, motioned passed.

The Inland Northwest SPIN asked for resources for free TOT QPR classes. Debbie stated that Danielle Scott has free training available. Sharlene mentioned that we also discussed putting it in our action plan for the next fiscal year. Sharlene will follow up with Danielle to see what is available. Caitlyn motioned that if there were no other options available and we had funds to sponsor 2 SPIN participants in TOT QPR. Debbie 2nd. Unanimous, motion passes.

The Cottonwood PD and DATE Program have a PFS LE grant with UYLC as their fiscal agent. They have had more request for services than budgeted for. They requested additional funding from ODP. Camille forwarded to Sharlene and explained she had no additional funding but asked if we did. Sharlene anticipated that after the Montana Institute costs were factored in that there should be enough funding to support this request, if fiscal would approve it. Zlata motioned to support this request if there were enough funds, Kiri 2nd, unanimous, motion passed.

The vinyl clings and stickers are in, it is time to disseminate. Darrel, Kiri, Kelly, UYLC, and Caitlyn will all help with distribution in their respective areas. Sharlene will reach out to Chief Terry Cochran to see if he can hand them out on the Prairie. Darrel, Kelly, UYLC and
